Funding

The concept of funding litigation and arbitration has grown over the past five years into a reality in several jurisdictions such as the US, UK, Australia and Germany where previously no such possibilities existed. Global Arbitration Litigation Services "Global" - was one of the first to recognise the potential for companies involved in arbitration and litigation to seek third party investment to fund their legal costs. Through its contacts in the international legal and insurance markets "Global" is approached by claimants seeking funding for claims.

Advisors at Global conduct due diligence exercise over the claim, assessing the merits, recoverability and costs. Global will, if the case is suitable, seek funding in the market. By having excellent relationships with funders who trust our judgement and expertise, and through knowing which funders are attracted to particular claim types, we are able to match claimant to fund in the most efficient way.

Claims Management

We can provide management services to support clients who have international claims or debt recovery procedures in existence or which are contemplated. The service includes reporting to the client, management of lawyers, overview of instructions to experts and consideration of overall strategies.

The support we provide in our case management service takes the hassle out of the litigation process so the client is spared much of the routine work in managing a case through lawyers or recovery agents.

In particular we offer our management services to hedge funds and other third party funders of litigation and arbitration. These clients often do not have the time or the expertise to be involved in the day-to-day management of their investment. By acting as case managers we can reduce the exposure of funds to the cost and risk of arbitration and litigation.

Our fees for this service are flexible and can either be fixed, at competitive hourly rates or contingent on recovery.
